

EAT + DRINK LISTINGS

Steak with a crabcake at Joey Newport Beach

A WARM WELCOME

Stop by JOEY NEWPORT BEACH, and you'll be greeted with a complimentary glass of Champagne while you wait for a table to open up, a signature move of the brand that makes diners feel right at home. Whether you dine around the fire pit on the spacious patio or inside the modern, art-filled dining room, the menu is sure to impress, filled with cultural fare from around the globe. Start out with Japanese gyoza, roasted corn guacamole, Szechwan crispy tofu lettuce wraps, Steak & Ravioli Bianco or innovative tempura prawn sushi cones before transitioning to entrees such as a hand-pressed burger, sake-glazed Chilean sea bass, Bollywood butter chicken, bone-in rib-eye, spaghetti pomodoro and more. End your meal with warm Italian doughnuts, molten chocolate cake, creme brulee cheesecake or an individually baked apple pie. Though this is the fourth Southern California location, Joey Newport Beach, which opened in January, is the first in Orange County. (949-826-5699; joeyrestaurants.com) —Ashley Ryan

ZERO-PROOF SIPS

A new pop-up bar—sans the alcohol—has come to town, taking up shop inside Grounded Coffee House in Corona del Mar every Saturday evening. UNLEADED SPIRITS was unveiled at the end of January, serving up cocktails, beer and wine with 0.5% alcohol or less. “The goal is to create an inclusive social space where everyone feels comfortable,” says Brittany Rowley, founder and owner of both Unleaded Spirits and Grounded Coffee House. The menu, which will change seasonally, includes classics like the House Marg, made with 0% tequila and lime, and the French 75, filled with zero-proof Champagne and gin plus lemon and elderflower. Other options include The Godfather, a drink with a whiskey-like finish; the Key Lime Pie Gin Fizz, which blends egg white, key lime juice, simple syrup, soda water and cream with alcohol-free gin; and the Beach Bum, a refreshing beverage that incorporates coconut water. The pop-up experience is expected to run through at least the end of the summer, and those planning to attend can pre-purchase tickets to receive your first two drinks free with the price of admission. ## BAR BITES

Whether it's happy hour or a Sunday afternoon, there are few feelings greater than pulling up a seat around a vivacious bar, with live music playing in the back-ground. This is exactly the kind of scene you'll often find in the lounge at BAYSIDE RESTAURANT, where a recent remodel of the bar area saw a wall come down in order to expand the countertop further to add more seating. In addition to this enhancement—plus some fresh paint and new high-top tables—the eatery launched a new bar menu in late February. Available every day from 4:30 p.m. to close, diners will find traditional bites, including beef or short rib sliders, cheese and charcuterie, as well as innovative options like the buffalo cauliflower and NOLA fries with Cajun seasoning and lemon aioli. The menu also features a number of seafood options, from a blue crab dip to oysters on the half shell, tuna poke and shrimp ceviche. Diners can also order off of the full menu at the bar. ## GOING GREEN

This St. Patrick's Day, skip the green beer in favor of a drink that's a little more Newport: BILLY'S AT THE BEACH is celebrating by making its World Famous Mai Tais green for the holiday. In addition to the verdant tropical cocktails—which are filled with Bacardi and Diamond Head rums, orange curacao and a house-made juice blend—the waterfront eatery is offering two special entrees. Billy's will serve a traditional meal of corned beef and cabbage as well as a pastrami Reuben sandwich, crafted on rye bread with Swiss cheese, house-made sauerkraut and the restaurant's own Thousand Island sauce. While the classic Irish bites will be offered from March 14-17, the festive green cocktails will be available for one day only, on St. Patrick's Day. In addition to these specials, diners can find lunch, dinner and happy hour menus at Billy's as well as brunch on Saturdays and Sundays.
